Fall-colouring is a topic in graph theory which combines the ideas of independence and domination. Specifically, a fall-colouring of a graph is a partition of the vertices of the graph into independent dominating sets. In this talk, we will examine the effect that various graph operators have on fall-colourability. We will also look at an NP-Complete problem of Fall-colourability.